

MOOSE IS WELGAN IN CHICAGO TODAY

All Reports of Conditions on Eve of Convention Show Harmony Is Sought.

By JUDSON C. WELLIVER.

CHICAGO, June 5.—All the reports of political conditions at Chicago on the eve of the gathering of the Republican national convention, agree that there is a determination to have harmony and reunion.

There are differences of detail to be worked out, minor divergences to be adjusted, and a good deal of machinery to be reorganized to the purpose of establishing one party, organization, platform, and ticket in place of two.

But these things are going to be accomplished because there is the will to do them, and the realization of the great national necessity.

From every point of view it is noticed that the Republicans and Progressives of four years ago get together now. Even if the Democratic party should carry the country in the coming election, the country would feel better to know it was once more being ruled by a majority rather than a minority party.

Creature of Accident.

It has not been conducive to the comfort of the party which has been in power the last three years to know constantly that it was the creature of an accident not of its own making, to appreciate that the country never wanted it in authority and to be reminded constantly that its policies were not those of the nation.

The time has come when there is absolute requirement that the nation be given a chance to decide itself in a voice that shall not be uncertain, to adopt a program and to elect a leader.

Facing a crisis in its relations to the outside world that demands national unity at every point, this country must not go on divided into factions, it must be pulled together and given the chance to stand before the world as a unit.

The members of the organization will spend the entire day on the range, and some of them may remain for the week end.

Forbearance Needed.

It has required a good deal of forbearance, of calmness, of common sense and mutual concession, to bring the paths of the two parties into parallel lines, so that today they seem to lead straight to a common terminus once more. It has been a patriotic forbearance, a wise willingness to listen to reason, the desire to meet on their present auspicious juncture.

It is most of all to be hoped that no untoward incident may interfere with the larger object of union and effectiveness now apparently on the point of accomplishment.

There must be a statement of policies and principles, such as will ring true to Americanism, such as will emphasize no differences, but sound a clear accord with the nation and its future.

Our part in the world will largely be determined by the results of the coming election, and it is the duty of every citizen to be at its best.

Hints at Conference.

Perkins admitted that the Progressive National Committee today might make some arrangements leading to a conference with Republican leaders. He declared, however, that the committee would discuss chiefly routine business today.

"I will state positively," said Perkins, "that the Progressive party has not asked Justice Hughes any questions or tried to force a definite announcement from him."

Along Candidates' Row it was said some Progressive leaders, including Harold L. Ickes of Illinois, had determined to "smoke out" Hughes.

The more radical Progressives today were still determined to force Roosevelt's nomination at the expense of Bull Moose convention. Perkins, however, seemed confident the struggle in the convention would be amicably.

"There are about 1,200 delegates coming to our convention," Perkins said. "They are paying their own expenses, and are absolutely free and untrammelled. Of course, they have their views and they will fight for them on the floor of the convention, but I am sure that the 'harmony' which Perkins 'popped out' after the Washington State delegation of Moose arrived."

National Committeeman Austin E. Griffiths, of Seattle, declared the Progressives ought to remain separate and intact—and the Washingtonians said amen.

Died in the wool Moose came trooping into town, among others being Victor Murdock, national committee chairman, Gifford Pinchot, William Pittman, Oscar Strause, William Alden White, Henry J. Allen, and Herbert Knox Smith.

Signs Bank Notes to Pay Bills at Hotel

California Banker and Booster Advertises Home Town in Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY, June 5.—The Hotel Traymore has a genuine California booster in its midst. He is C. F. Langley, of Watsonville, Cal.

Mr. Langley is president of the Pajaro Valley National Bank, in Watsonville, and he puts the bank, the town, and the State on the map by advertising in an unusual way.

Whenever a waiter presents a check in the dining room, Mr. Langley brings out a pair of scissors and a roll of green paper, clips off a $5 bank note, signs it with his fountain pen, and pays the check. The captain and waiters know their business and accepted Mr. Langley's money-making stunt without a lift of the eyebrows. The bank notes are already signed by the cashier of the California Bank.

CAR CO. HEADS FAIL TO AGREE HEARING

Valuation Proceedings for East Washington Heights Line Delayed by Absentees.

Failure of officials of the East Washington Heights Traction Railroad Company to appear and present testimony relative to the valuation of the properties of the company resulted today in an adjournment of the hearing called by the Public Utilities Commission to consider the valuations.

The company was given twenty-four hours to ask for a continuance of the hearing. It was intimated that if the request is not received within that time the tentative valuations would be made final.

The commission estimates the cost of reproduction of the company's properties at $10,325,144 and the cost of reproduction, less depreciation, at $12,716,716. The surplus exclusive of overhead expenses, materials and supplies and working capital, items which were to be considered at the hearing.

L. H. Millspaugh, attorney, was the only representative of the company present. Mr. Millspaugh presented a letter signed by J. E. Melton, vice president, in which it was stated that "all of the estimates presented by the company for the year ended December 31, 1915, Mr. Millspaugh stated, the total cost of reproduction of the properties of the company was $10,325,144. This, he said, does not include payment for the services of H. J. Fawcett and other officers for a period of fifteen years, the value of which is estimated at $15,000. Commissioner Newman characterized the estimate as "a bluff."

On suggestion of Engineer Commissioner Kutz that the company might be given one more opportunity to present its side, the hearing was continued until Friday.

The officers of the company are A. R. Melton, president; J. E. Melton, vice president, and J. Henry Brown, secretary.

The line extends from Pennsylvania avenue and Seventeenth street southeast to Pennsylvania and Minnesota avenues southeast.

Congressman William J. Cary, of Wisconsin, member of the House District Committee, addressed the firmmen's association of the District at a meeting in the Perpetual Hall last night on the subject of an adequate police and fire department pension system.

Mr. Cary promised his support to pending pension legislation declaring that he wanted to see enacted a law that not only would provide adequately for the District's disabled and retired firemen, but one that would serve as a model for the country.

President Ketch of the Maryland Firemen's Association declared that he was interested in efforts by District firemen to obtain adequate pensions.

Mr. Cary is a member of the special committee appointed by the Federation of Citizens' Association to pass legislation at this session of the police and firemen's bill and other matters in which the firemen are particularly interested.

Colonel Gratified At German Letter

Wisconsin Man of German Descent Says He Is For Roosevelt in Any Party.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., June 5.—Colonel Roosevelt was "highly gratified" with a letter he received from W. F. Zierath, of Sheboygan, Wis., saying: "I hope to have the pleasure of voting for you either as the nominee of the Republican party or as the head of another party—an American party. If any one believes the German-American Alliance should be dissolved, I am the spokesman for the Germans of American birth they are misinformed."

Zierath identified himself as a "man of German descent and of much Teutonic blood."

Roosevelt will leave his private telephone line, which connects him directly with his headquarters in Chicago, for the first time tomorrow, when he will visit his dentist in New York.

George B. Cortesou, Roosevelt's former Secretary and cabinet member, called on the Colonel today and left immediately for Chicago. The Colonel maintained an absolute silence on political topics.

CONNIE MACK'S COUSIN HAS 14 VOTE GETTERS

ST. LOUIS, June 5.—Cornelius Roach, secretary of state candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, and first cousin to Connie Mack, has fourteen reasons now for asking the voters of the State to support him. The fourteenth is a girl, and arrived today at the Roach home.

Connie Mack's cousin entered State politics eight years ago, and at that time was the father of ten children. He sent circulars to the voters asking their support and stating as ten reasons why they should support him the ten little reasons. Since then the reasons have come rapidly.

When he ran for secretary of state he started the campaign with eleven, and before the campaign was over he had thirteen, twins augmenting the number. He won the election.
